

PROFIELD PROJECT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Studies show that up to 60% of project costs is non value added time. Brand Services and Aluma Systems are committed to rigorous site project management methodologies and cost control processes to ensure that we meet budget and schedules.

- ProField is an exclusive Brand Services and Aluma Systems Project Management Methodology that was developed and field tested to deliver superior value-added service to maintain our reputation as “pro’s” in the “field”.
- Profield integrates best practices from our years of experience into a standard methodology that delivers consistency, quality and productivity in every project we undertake regardless of size, location and scope.
- Coupled with our experienced field staff Profield ensures that we deliver the safest and smartest solutions for Scaffolding requirements while maintaining project critical path and to deliver results that make every project a success.