

Safety in Numbers

A half day was devoted to paired observations training and a site walkdown at Syncrude's Spring 2010 Turnaround Preparation Meeting earlier this year. ARCCA W leadership paired up with the Aluma Systems Fort McMurray team for this peer review process that emphasizes the importance of working safe. Team members used a checklist to observe and identify safety issues related to the working environment, protective gear, tools and machinery, and worker behaviours.

From left to right: Bob Cook, Local 1325, Dave Windsor, Aluma site safety lead, Martyn Piper, executive secretary treasurer, ARCCA W, Mick Herke, Aluma general manager for northern Alberta